About the HRTPO

Federal regulations require that urbanized areas throughout the United States have a Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) to conduct a continuing, cooperative and comprehensive transportation planning process. Urbanized areas are defined as areas with a population of 200,000 or greater, known as Transportation Management Areas (TMA). The Hampton Roads Transportation Planning Organization (HRTPO) serves as the Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) for the Hampton Roads region of Virginia and serves over 1.7 million people. The HRTPO is responsible for transportation planning and programming in the Hampton Roads region and serves as a resource of technical expertise to its member local governments. The HRTPO is an equal opportunity employer. For more information on the HRTPO, visit www.hrtpo.org.

The Position

The Hampton Roads Transportation Planning Organization (HRTPO) is seeking a candidate for a Community & Public Involvement Planner. The Community & Public Involvement Planner will assist in the implementation of public outreach activities to engage the general public and key business stakeholders to enhance and improve the work of the HRTPO. Primary responsibilities include assisting in the implementation of outreach strategies and activities included in the HRTPO Public Participation Plan and HRTPO Title VI and LEP Plan. The successful candidate will assist in the facilitation of civic engagement activities for the HRTPO, including efforts to provide information to and engage traditionally underrepresented populations, implementation of specific outreach processes tailored to maximize the involvement of unique Hampton Roads populations, and provide staff support to the HRTPO Citizen Transportation Advisory Committee. Regular attendance is an essential requirement of this position.

The Candidate

The ideal candidate will have:

- Knowledge of the theories, principles, and techniques of transportation planning
- Demonstrated experience in Title VI, Environmental Justice, Limited English Proficiency & Public Outreach
- The ability to interpret and clearly communicate technical analyses via written reports and presentations; excellent writing skills
- Highly developed verbal, listening, communication and interpersonal skills with ability to think critically
- Demonstrated knowledge of and experience in ESRI ARC/GIS
- The ability to work well with stakeholders, planning professionals and agency staff to develop positive, successful working relationships
- The ability to work effectively as part of a team and thrive in a fast-paced environment
- The ability to follow a supervisor's instructions & work both independently collaboratively on multiple projects
- The ability to appropriately manage time to meet deadlines; strong attention to detail, follow-through and organization.
- A strong interest and/or experience in transportation planning with knowledge of Active Transportation
- Knowledge of electronic communications capabilities and effective use of social media
- Experience in urban or transportation planning, civic engagement or communications with a public agency
- Qualified applicants must be a U.S. citizen or a permanent resident.

Education & Experience

About Hampton Roads

The Hampton Roads area is located in southeastern Virginia where the Atlantic Ocean meets the Chesapeake Bay. The region's land area covers approximately 2,907 square miles and includes an extensive system of waterways including the Intercoastal Waterway and the James, York, Nansemond and Elizabeth Rivers. Hampton Roads is rich in cultural treasures, reflecting the diversity of its communities and a variety of annual festivals celebrate the heritage of the region. History, music, drama, and art can also be found in a multitude of theaters and museums in the area. Norfolk is recognized as the Arts capital of Virginia, and is the home city for the Virginia Symphony, Virginia Ballet, Virginia Opera and the Commonwealth Theatre Company. The NorVa Theater, a downtown concert venue, offers concerts featuring national touring acts and well-known artists. The City of Virginia Beach is the number one vacation destination in Virginia. The City's three-mile boardwalk is only part of what makes the City so attractive to locals and visitors alike. From Croatan Beach to the south all the way to the North End beaches of the City, Virginia Beach reveals its vibrancy and laid back beach vibe, all wrapped up in a sprawling, park-like setting. Williamsburg and James City County offer a wide range of activities and historic destinations; whether it is Williamsburg and the Colonial Capital or Busch Gardens Amusement park. Facilities located along the James and York Rivers offer a variety of activities that include boating, fishing, camping, biking, and tennis. There are hundreds of parks and campgrounds throughout the area.
