About the HRTPO

Federal regulations require that urbanized areas (areas with a population of 50,000 or more, as designated by the Census Bureau) throughout the United States have a Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) to conduct a continuing, cooperative and comprehensive transportation planning process. Urbanized areas with a population of 200,000 or greater are designated as Transportation Management Areas (TMA). The Hampton Roads Transportation Planning Organization (HRTPO) serves as the Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) for the Hampton Roads region of Virginia and serves a population of more than 1.7 million. The HRTPO is responsible for transportation planning and programming in the Hampton Roads TMA and serves as a resource of technical expertise to its member local governments. The HRTPO is an equal opportunity employer. For more information on the HRTPO, visit www.hrtpo.org.

About Hampton Roads

The Hampton Roads area is located in southeastern Virginia where the Atlantic Ocean meets the Chesapeake Bay. The region's land area covers approximately 2,907 square miles and includes an extensive system of waterways including the Intercoastal Waterway and the James, York, Nansemond and Elizabeth Rivers. Hampton Roads is rich in cultural treasures, reflecting the diversity of its communities and a variety of annual festivals celebrate the heritage of the region. History, music, drama, and art can also be found in a multitude of theaters and museums in the area. Norfolk is recognized as the Arts capital of Virginia, and is the home city for the Virginia Symphony, Virginia Ballet, Virginia Opera and the Commonwealth Theatre Company. The NorVa Theater, a downtown concert venue, offers concerts featuring national touring acts and well-known artists. The City of Virginia Beach is the number one vacation destination in Virginia. The City's three-mile boardwalk is only part of what makes the City so attractive to locals and visitors alike. From Croatan Beach to the south all the way to the North End beaches of the City, Virginia Beach reveals its vibrancy and laid back beach vibe, all wrapped up in a sprawling, park-like setting. The Mariner's Museum in Newport News is one of the most famous and complete maritime museums in the world. Also located in Newport News is the Virginia War Museum, featuring the largest collection of war relics and historical records in the United States. Nauticus, the National Maritime Center, is located on the downtown Norfolk waterfront and is home to the Battleship Wisconsin. Williamsburg and James City County offer a wide range of activities and historic destinations; whether it is Williamsburg and the Colonial Capital or Busch Gardens Amusement park. Facilities located along the James and York Rivers offer a variety of activities that include boating, fishing, camping, biking, and tennis. Washington, D.C. is 200 miles to the north, and Richmond, the state capital, is located 100 miles to the west.
