

Additionally, Vice-Chair McClellan recommended adding the ability for USACE studies to include military assets in cost benefit ratios. She commented that military assets are not currently considered, but if they were, the priority of many Hampton Roads projects could increase.

**Commissioners Ella Ward, Amanda Jarratt, and Neil Morgan departed*

Commissioner Ritter commented that she would ask Chesapeake staff to share updated information they have regarding the FEMA disclosure. Regarding the K12 Public Education topic, Commissioner Ritter suggested considering specific adjustments to the standards of quality. She explained that if enhanced school security were included in the standards of quality, then there may be a state funding component.

**Commissioners Michael Johnson, Barry Porter, and Kenneth Alexander departed*

Mr. Crum thanked the Commission for their input.
