

search: Student EmailStaff EmailCareer and Technical Education CenterGPGSAThe Governor's School for Science and TechnologyCenter for Apprenticeship and Adult TrainingCenter for AutismNewport AcademyNew Horizons Family Counseling CenterHomeAbout UsEmploymentEducational FoundationBusiness PartnershipsSchool DivisionsFAQContact UsBoard of TrusteesCalendarsOrganizational PlansNewsClosings and DelaysEmergencyPreparedness

Fast Facts

- Opened its doors as Virginia Peninsula Vocational Technical Center in 1965 (see History for information regarding growth of facilities and services).
- Owned and Operated by the six Peninsula School Divisions (Gloucester, Hampton, Newport News, Poquoson, Williamsburg/JCC, and York).
- Largest of the nine regional centers in the state of Virginia in both size and scope of service.
- Centers include:
 - Career and Technical Education Center
 - Center for Apprenticeship and Adult Training
 - Governor's School for Science and Technology
 - Center for Autism
 - Newport Academy
 - Family Counseling Center
- Located on four sites:
 - Butler Farm Campus a 115,000 sq. ft. bldg. on 30 acres
 - Woodside Lane is a 75,000 sq. ft. main bldg. and 50,000 sq. ft. modulars on 20 acres
 - Kiln Creek is a 15,000 sq. ft. integrated wing at Kiln Creek Elementary School
 - York Middle School is a 8,800 sq. ft wing (being constructed) at York Middle School
- Over 300 employees (full and part-time)
- Total budget exceeds $12,000,000
- Serves approximately 1,500 public school students and another 1,200 adults per year

New Horizons Regional Education Centers Copyright © 2007-2017 | Privacy | Webmaster